Notes:

- In accordance with the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Chairman of the Board or, failing him, another director, will preside as chairman of the AGM.
- Ordinary Resolutions: To be passed, these resolutions require a simple majority of the votes cast by those members voting in person or by proxy or by corporate representative at the AGM to be cast in favour.
- A member entitled to attend and vote at the AGM is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him or her. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. Completion and return of the form of proxy will not preclude members from attending and voting at the meeting, if they so wish.
- More than one proxy may be appointed provided each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to different shares.
- To be valid the form of proxy, together with the original power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is executed (or a notarially certified copy of such power of authority) must be deposited with the Company's agent, for this purpose being Anson Registrars Limited, Anson House, Havilland Street, St Peter Port, Guernsey, GY1 2QE, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the AGM or any adjourned AGM (excluding any part of a day that is not a business day in Guernsey). A form of proxy is enclosed with this notice.
- All persons recorded on the register of shareholders as holding shares in the Company as at 6.30 p.m. on Tuesday, 3 October, 2017 or, if the AGM is adjourned, as at 6.30 p.m. on the business day before the day of any adjourned AGM, shall be entitled to attend and vote (in person, by proxy or by corporate representative) at the meeting and shall be entitled to one vote per share held.
- Where there are joint registered holders of any shares such persons shall not have the right of voting individually in respect of such shares but shall elect one of their number to represent them and to vote whether in person or by proxy in their name. In default of such election the person whose name stands first on the register of shareholders shall alone be entitled to vote. Where there are joint participants in respect of any share such persons shall not have the right of voting individually in respect of such share but shall elect one of their number to represent them and to vote whether in person or by proxy in their name. In default of such election the participant whose interests are first notified to the Company shall alone be entitled to vote.
- On a poll votes may be given either personally, by proxy or by corporate representative and a shareholder entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- Any corporation which is a shareholder may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at this AGM. Any person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise on behalf of the corporation which he represents the same powers (other than to appoint a proxy) as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual shareholder.

EXPLANATORY NOTES TO THE NOTICE OF AGM

At the AGM there are five ordinary resolutions which shareholders will be asked to consider and, if thought fit, approve. An explanation of each of these resolutions is given below. All resolutions are proposed as ordinary resolutions. An ordinary resolution requires more than 50 per cent. of votes cast at the AGM on that resolution to be cast in favour of it for the resolution to be passed.

ORDINARY RESOLUTIONS

Resolution 1: Annual Report and Accounts

The Companies Law requires that the accounts and reports of a company are laid before a general meeting. For each financial year the directors are required to present the directors' report, the audited accounts and the auditor's reports to shareholders at a general meeting. Shareholders are asked to receive the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 31 March, 2017. The annual report can be downloaded from the Company's website www.aa4plus.com.

Resolutions 2 and 3 (inclusive): Appointment of Auditor and remuneration

Following the previous annual general meeting of the Company the appointment of the auditor was to continue until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting to be held in 2017. Deloitte LLP has indicated that they are willing to continue to be the Company's auditor for the next year. You are asked to approve their re-appointment, to hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting to be held in 2018 under section 199 of the Companies Law, and to authorise the directors of the Company to determine its remuneration.

Resolutions 4 and 5: Re-election of directors

The Company's Articles require that any director who has held office at the two preceding annual general meetings of the Company and did not retire from office at either of those meetings shall retire from office and shall be available for re-election as the same meeting and section B.7.1 of the UK Corporate Governance Code provides that directors should retire and be subject to re-election at intervals of no more than three years. The Board has decided that the directors should retire and be re-elected by rotation, so Messrs Gelber and Le Prevost will at the AGM retire and, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election.

Having considered the performance and contribution made by each of the directors, the Board believes that each of them continues to perform effectively and with commitment to their roles and, as such, the Board recommends their re-election.

Brief biographical details of the directors seeking re-election can be found in the Company's annual financial report at page 15.
